Honorable Alexandre Sambat

Dear Monsieur Sambat:

It was a real pleasure meeting you and your beautiful family. I am impressed with your intelligence, courage and resolve to meet the challenge of seeking the Presidency of Gabon. I am honored that you are interested in hiring me to work as Campaign Coordinator to work towards that end. If you agree, this letter will constitute our working agreement for the duration of your campaign.

I have verbally discussed an outline of a plan which is designed to assist you in coordinating a strategy designed to (1) get support of key U.S. political players and (2) establish relationships with large majority and African-American companies which will ultimately operate branches of their businesses in Gabon.

My background in media, business and law is uniquely suited to help you. I have enclosed a summary of my background for your information. I proposed to serve as an advisor to you and a coordinator of these activities. As a candidate, you need to be focused on each day's activities and mindful of your security. You should not be bogged down with the details and logistics of the day's events.

Although it sounds simple, it is really an awesome task. We envision producing a daily schedule of events for you which will include media events, meetings with diplomats, business owners and Members of Congress, in accordance with the attached plan. We will provide all of the necessary logistical support for creating the itinerary including, engaging all firms and consultants, with your approval; coordinating their activities and following up on the contacts made with computer databases.

Rather than an hourly fee, I propose a monthly salary of $25,000 for myself and my assistants, along with overhead associated with such staff. Over an eleven month period, this would amount to $275,000.

Also, because I will be giving up the active marketing for and practice of my law firm for a considerable period of time, we must both have certain protections in the event that we need to end our relationship. I wish to withdraw, I will give you 30 day notice, and if you wish, I will assist you in finding a suitable replacement. In the event that you wish to replace me, you must also give me 30 days notice or pay my monthly allotment ($25,000).

If these terms are agreeable to you, please sign below. I truly look forward to working with you, your family and organization for the betterment of both our countries.

Best regards,

Kay Pierson

Understood and agreed to by me this _____ day of _____,
